TRANSFER AIRPORT/ HOTEL

Buenos Aires has two airports
Ezeiza Airport (EZE), is 40 minutes from downtown, on the outskirts of the city. This airport does not have public transportation to access the center of Buenos Aires.
Airport Aeroparque (AEP), is easily accessible, only 15 minutes from downtown. This airport has public transport, but it is not recommended because citizens aren't used to seeing passengers with suitcases in the public transport. This airport is used for domestic flights and some regional flights.
